- Select “For Free” under the drop down list for “Type”
- Click on “Go” to see devices posted as free

The screenshot shows the AzTAP website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the AzTAP logo and the text "ARIZONA Technology Access Program". Below the logo, it says "A Statewide, Phoenix-based program of the Institute for Human Development at NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY". The navigation menu includes links for Home, About Us, AT Devices, AT Reuse, AT Funding, AT Education, AT Conference, AT Resources, and Contact Us. The main content area is titled "The Arizona Assistive Technology Exchange (ATEX)" and features a navigation bar with links for Home, Register, Login, View Items Available, View Items Needed, Forgot My Login Information, How to Post an Ad, Helpful Tips, and FAQ. Below this, there are links for "We want your Feedback", "FDA Recalls", and "ATEX Disclaimer". The user is signed in as [Anonymous]. The main heading is "Items Listed as Available on the Arizona Assistive Technology Exchange". Below this, there is a filter section with the following options: Category: All Categories, Posted: All Items, Type: For Free (highlighted with a red checkmark), Within miles: Any, of zip code: [blank], Item Name or Description contains: [blank], 25 records per page, and a Go button.
